

WOMEN IN DISTRESS
OF BROWARD COUNTY, INC.™

JIM & JAN MORAN FAMILY CENTER

Sample bequest language

The following are examples of three outright gift provisions. The sample language illustrates how a bequest or a gift through a living trust can be accomplished, and is intended to be used for educational purposes rather than as advice. We encourage donors to share this information with their legal counsel, and recommend that anyone undertaking estate planning do so with the consultation of an attorney.

Specific Bequest to Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc.

"I give _____ (describe asset) to Women In Distress of Broward County, a Florida non-profit corporation, EIN#59-1592524 PO Box 50187, Lighthouse Point, FL 33074, to further the objectives and purposes of the organization and its mission."

Cash Bequest to Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc.

A cash bequest provides Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc. with a specified sum of money from a donor's estate.

"I give _____ Dollars ($_____) to Women In Distress of Broward County, a Florida non-profit corporation, EIN#59-1592524 PO Box 50187, Lighthouse Point, FL 33074 to further the objectives and purposes of the organization and its mission."

Residuary Bequest to Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc.

A residuary bequest is made from the residue, or what remains in a donor's estate after specific and cash bequests, taxes, settlement costs and debts are satisfied. This type of bequest is sensitive to changes in the size of the estate over time.

"I give the residue (or _____ percent of the residue) of my estate to Women In Distress of Broward County, a Florida non-profit corporation, EIN#59-1592524 PO Box 50187, Lighthouse Point, FL 33074 to further the objectives and purposes of the organization and its mission."
